

Mr Jason Harvey

MBBS FRACS

Orthopaedic Hand Surgeon

Jason Harvey is an internationally trained Melbourne orthopaedic surgeon with a special interest in hand, wrist, and elbow surgery. Jason graduated from the University of Sydney in 1997. After an internship at Sydney's Royal Prince Alfred Hospital he moved to the United States where he undertook general surgery training at Harvard and Harbor-UCLA, completing his advanced training in orthopaedic surgery at Harbor-UCLA in 2005.

Jason then undertook a hand and peripheral nerve surgery fellowship in Sydney (Royal North Shore) and was admitted to fellowship of The Royal Australasian College of Surgeons in 2007.

Jason has a particular interest in arthroscopic surgery and is also involved in research into advanced techniques in fixation of wrist fractures, finger joint replacement and base of thumb arthritis. Through his public appointment at Dandenong he is consistently involved in teaching junior doctors and has been on the faculty of a number of advanced teaching courses.
