

Mr Matthew Campbell

MBBS FRACS

E.N.T Head & Neck Surgeon

Mr Matthew Campbell works at St Vincent's Private Hospital Fitzroy.

Matthew graduated from the University of Melbourne Medical School in 1984. He completed his Fellowship in ENT Head and Neck Surgery in 1995 and won the Jean Littlejohn medal for research (1994) and the Hugh Noel Puckle Prize (1996). He travelled to Europe for further training in middle ear surgery, vocal disorders and Head and Neck Surgery before returning to Melbourne.

Mr Campbell was appointed director of the ENT Head and Neck Surgical Unit at Austin Health in 2000 and of the Northern Hospital in 2005.

While he is loved by his paediatric patients and their families, he also relishes his work in sinus surgery, rhinoplasty, middle ear surgery and head, and neck surgery.

Subspecialty interests include:

- Middle ear surgery
- Sinus and nose surgery
- Paediatric ENT surgery
- Snoring and sleep apnoea surgery
- General ENT surgery including tonsillectomy
