Obstetrician & Gynaecologist

We are delighted to introduce Mr Guy Skinner: Obstetrician and Gynaecologist at St Vincent's Private Hospital Melbourne.

Dr Guy Skinner is an established private obstetrician from his new room's onsite at St Vincent's Private Hospital Melbourne.

Guy has developed a well established practice over the past 12 years, with the added support of three highly experienced midwives. Guy strongly values natural birth and is well known for his open communication style and flexible approach. This approach is essential to help ensure the best possible care and outcomes are delivered to both mother and baby.

Guy has an avid interest in research and education which is supported by his role as an educator, where he also holds the position of Senior Consultant Obstetrician at the Royal Women's Hospital. Guy has worked and studied in England and France and has a special interest in the care and delivery of twin pregnancies.

Guy has a focus on encouraging mothers to deliver naturally, including mothers of multiple and breech babies. Guy also specialises in high risk pregnancy and laparoscopic surgery.
