Hospital Melbourne.

Dr Hayden Waterham is an obstetrician and gynaecologist in full time private practice at St Vincent's Private Hospital Fitzroy. Additionally, Hayden is a consultant obstetrician and gynaecologist at Mercy Hospital for Women.

Hayden completed his advanced medical training at the Royal Women's Hospital with a focus on high risk pregnancies, ultrasound and laparoscopic surgery.

Hayden's long term professional goal has been to provide women and their families with the highest quality, evidence based safe and continuous care throughout life. He strongly believes in an open and honest approach and acknowledges and manages patients by seeing them in the context of their professional, extended social and family life.

Hayden is aware that issues related to conception, pregnancy, labour and delivery can include many emotions such as unbridled joy, excitement, fulfillment and sometimes fear, anxiety and disappointment. Each pregnancy is unique and the greatest benefit of private care with Hayden is establishing a relationship that allows him to tailor his care to patients individual needs.
