

Dr John Nik Ding

MBBS(Hons) FRACP

Gastroenterologist

We are delighted to introduce Dr John Nik Ding: Gastroenterologist at St Vincent's Private Hospital, Melbourne.

John offers treatment in both public and private hospitals. He is currently the principle investigator in IBD trials at St Vincent's Hospital Melbourne and has recently returned from the London Imperial College where he completed his PhD project in inflammatory bowel disease and an appointment as a clinical lecturer.

John offers endoscopy services at St Vincent's Private Hospital and Jolimont Endoscopy. For patients who are uninsured and require endoscopy, appointments can be made at his private rooms or alternatively they can be waitlisted for procedures at St Vincent's Public Hospital. Patients holding Pension or healthcare cards will be offered a reduced rate.

Subspecialty interests include:

- Inflammatory bowel disease
- Irritable bowel syndrome
- Bowel cancer screening
- Coeliac disease
- Gastro-oesophageal reflux disease

John works from a patient-centered approach and is open to discussing patients with GPs to provide cohesive ongoing treatment and care. He can also converse in Mandarin.
